

CHAINS OR CHEER?

Are you more in a season of cheer or “chains”?
We can always...
...be confident that Christ is with us there.
...season our conversations with God’s grace.

DOORS

{ Colossians 4:2-6 }

How we converse opens or closes the door further.

SWEET CONVERSATION

“full of grace” → forgiving, non-judgmental, sweet

Both what we say & how we say it is important.

Don’t be mean or ugly—for Christ’s sake!

SAVORY CONVERSATION

“seasoned with salt” → witty, amusing, clever, humorous

Without the seasoning, it may still be good for nutrition
but it won’t seem as good to taste.

Be interesting & interested

Don’t be boring & lifeless—for Christ’s sake!

WHAT WE BELIEVE & SAY WHEN IN CHEER

(James 1:17)

“Praise God from whom all blessings flow!”

(Numbers 6:24-26)

“I will rejoice ... God is my victory and He is here”

WHAT WE BELIEVE & SAY WHEN IN CHAINS

(1 Thessalonians 4:18)
(2 Corinthians 4:18)
(Joshua 1:9)

(Romans 8:28)
(1 Corinthians 10:13)
(Philippians 4:13)

SPEND IT ALL!

“make the most” = redeem, buy out, spend it all

Opening our mouths could be opening the door.
